CONSTITUTION BAFFLES 55

The four-man debate squad from Nancy Hagen Canton's Danty College gained experience and some confidence, finishing Nov. 19 and 20 in the 20th Phi Delta Delta invitational speech tournament at Bradley University, Peoria.

Eighteen debate teams were entered in this year's event. It was reported that CCC teams, competing in the novice division, were two victories. Final results have not been announced by debate coach Tom Zimak.

Representing Canton were Robert Matchavich, Bill Meyers, Charlie Blevins, and Dan Crahon. Matthewson and Meyers won two and lost three of their debates. The negative team failed to score victories.

Tournament participants were invited to a banquet and dance the Friday night of the tournament.

DEBATERS GO TO BRADLEY

Thirty students passed the Constitution test which was given on Nov. 17. Eight-five students took the test.

Of those who passed the test, 95% attended the study sessions sponsored by the Young Republicans.

The test, which covers the United States and Illinois Constitutions and the Flag Code, will be given again on Dec. 15, March 4, April 11, and May 9.

A passing grade on the test is necessary for graduation from CCC.

Students are encouraged to take the test at an early date.

Competition was held in oral interpretation, debate, original oratory, and public speaking, radio speaking, extemporaneous speaking and debate. Macalester College (Illinois) was first place in many events and was awarded the sweepstakes trophy.

Draft Deferment Concerns College Men

College men whose worries used to be more serious than which girl to ask for a date are now facing bigger problems -- their draft status and keeping their grade at a satisfactory level.

Although shrillness of each Selective Service Board varies, most students are deferred if they are making normal full-time progress toward a degree and are in the appropriate sector of their class.

Crusader College freshmen, as long as they remain in school, have no immediate worries as long as they are doing satisfactory work. Their status in class will be determined in June at the end of the school year.

An appropriate sector in class is defined as follows: freshmen must be in the top half of all men in their class; sophomores must be in the top two-thirds; juniors in the top three-fourths; seniors who wish to go to graduate school in the top quarter.

A selective service board must choose by raffle to which men the board will permit deferment or to which call up will go. If a man is drafted, his college will notify the Selective Service Committee of the draft.

In the past the qualification test has been administered at Western Illinois University at Macomb and at Bradley University, Peoria. Canton College students have not been notified to whether or not they will be permitted to administer the test here.

The Selective Service Committee shall establish the minimum standards that students are enrolled on a full-time basis, and are expected to notify boards when students drop out of school.

Boards differ in their definitions of "full-time" studies. Some boards define the status as 11 semester hours, others raise the figure to 13 semester hours. A Harvard student was recently told that the standard Harvard program, which is not based on the usual credit hour system, was not a "full-time" one.

Some students may meet all the standards and still be put in 4-A, or may miss on all counts and remain in 2-D depending on the local board's needs.

A hearing of the number called in the draft, announced in Washington shortly before the recent election, is being held in local selective service centers. Here in Fulton County, for example, only four men were called for induction Dec. 1, and 20 men for pre-induction physical exams.

Many more students than under-graders are being reclassified according to selective service personnel. Some teachers, those without children are being called, it is reported.

A student may appeal his reclassification, draft official point out. However, the appeal must be made within 10 days of the date the draft notice reclassifying the student was mailed. These notices are sent by first-class surface mail. Should the notice be delayed more than 10 days in transit, the young man still has his appeal rights.

"Many youths are not aware that they have one more recourse if a state board turns down their appeal unreasonably. In this situation, a state or national Selective Service director can request a Presidential appeal."

Students who then contact their senator or congressman will, if their cases seem deserving of more review, be sent to the state or national director with a request for the final appeal.

"Draft Act, a pamphlet prepared by the Scientific Manpower Commission, is available for 25 cents. It gives regulations governing classifications, deferrals and appeals. Copies may be obtained for a quarter each from Scientific Manpower Commission, 2101 Constitution Ave, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20415.

CANTON CRUSADERS hit a slumping streak last week and lost their first two games to the Ellsworth Junior College Tourney Nov. 26 at Iowa Falls, la.

Hitting their stride too late to shock the best team out of the running the preceding day, the Crusaders failed to defend the title won the previous year. However, veteran Sam Gowers added points for the Crusaders by coming in second in "Most Valuable Player" category for tourney and for judges Ellis'h Sam Samuel most valuable.

Contributing greatly to the enviable shooting record which brought third place to the Crusaders was freshman guard Bernie Cowan who made 9 out of 11 attempts from the floor and added four free throws. His 22 total points was matched by Al Ford who also sank 9 shots from the field.

Close behind Ford and Cowan in the final game when CCD defeated Willow (Iowa) Junior College 26-20 in the first half-hour and every man scored. The coach felt the fast-paced holiday tourney was good preparation for the season's opening game Thursday against Lincoln Lutheran College.

Trying to make up what they lack in height by speed and alert defense, the Crusaders pressed from the start of the game to the finish. The rebounder was Al Ford who managed to save the game with his quickness. The team shot 16-for-30 (53 percent) of their shots, grabbed off eight rebounds although he was in the 5-8, 160-pound, center class. Tom Zimak got seven off the board and gave them the momentum for the win.

Ellsworth JC, postteam, which edged CCC 77-67 in the opening game to assume the championship with a 194-72 win of the opening game. The Crusaders lost to their chief rival Tuscola grabbed off eight rebounds as he was in the 5-11, 160-pound, center class. Tom Zimak got seven off the board and gave them the momentum for the win.

Canton players were looking forward to playing in the Illini Gym before a partisan crowd. They admitted also that the two 6-6 men on the Ellsworth team gave them trouble.

Some of the early season mistakes are expected to be corrected when the Crusaders, with seven starters behind them, meet Davilles College here tomorrow in Alice Ingersoll Gym. The game will begin at 8 p.m., following a wrestling match between Crusaders and Blackhawk College, scheduled to start at 5:00.

Dear Editor:
I regret that I should never be a source of discouragement but rather a source of solace and comfort. However, I believe in the power of the written word to heal and uplift. I cannot disagree that the defense of the truth is not always easy, especially in a world where the truth is often obscured by false narratives. In such cases, it is crucial that we remain steadfast in our commitment to truth and justice.

Sincerely,

KAPS PREPARE CHRISTMAS BASKETS

Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity is planning to prepare Christmas gift baskets for patients in Set- net Nursing Home and Graham Hospital.

Members will collect food, toys and candy and other Christmas gift items and deliver them before they leave for Christmas vacation.

The Phi Kaps are also planning to sponsor a dance Dec. 22 at Esquifion Gardens in Peoria. Details will be announced.

The fraternity's initiation ban- quet was held Nov. 15 in a special dining room at Westbrook's in Pekin. President Bill Hornik was the principal speaker.

During the meeting a set of rules was adopted and an effort made to promote unity among fraternity brothers. Members expressed appreciation to those persons who voted for their skill presented at Cruaders Ski Night enabling the Phi Kaps to win a trip to a thrift store.

Several pledges whom the ac- tivity had not completed the pledge period correctly will have another chance. Actives were scheduled to vote on whether or not the remaining pledges should be initiated.

S.S. PLANS CHRISTMAS SEMI FORMAL

A semi-formal Christmas dance being planned by the Stu- dent Senate will feature cross- ing of a King and Queen.

Student Senate members made prelimi- nary plans for the dance during a meeting held Nov. 28. They agreed to ask each sorority to nominate a man and each fraternity to nominate two college students to be the "regal- ty" competition. Nominations are to be submitted to Ted Biss, Student advisor, to Dec. 8. Elec- tions will be held Dec. 19.

The Senate is also asking fra- ternities to supply punch and refreshments to supply cookies for the Christmas dance. Tickets, at $3.50 per couple, are being sold by Student Senate members today, again Dec. 16 and 17 in Dole Hall.

Location of the dance will be announced. An effort is being made to get "Nobody's Child- ren" to play for the dance.

During the Nov. 29 meeting Student Senate members also considered a suggestion that an American flag be hung in front of Dole Hall, extending over Elm St.

A committee was asked to find out the cost of purchasing hang- ing flags for costs in Dole Dining.

Results of the vote for the best skit at Cruaders Ski Night were announced as follows: first, Phi Kappa Sigma, 19 points; sec- ond, Sigma Nu, 19 points; Si- liqua, 18 points; Alpha Delta Mu and Zeta Chi, 7 points. A "school spirit" trophy will be presented to the winning group.

HAPPINESS IS HAVING OUR OWN CELEBRITY

By MIKE CHATWELL

Have you seen Canton College's celebrity? Everyone who saw Mr. Richard Bales the first week of school did a double-take. Had the well-known Johnny Carson switched from the Tonight Show to the "Today" show at CCC? "Our Johnny Carson" teaches sociology and social problems in six three-hour classes each week.

When Bales arrived at Canton College, students immediately recognized his strong resemblance to the well-known television personality Johnny Carson, even each night in this area on Channel 25.

When young people tell him he looks like Carson, the college instructor replies, "He looks like me."

Until a year ago Bales taught sociology and American history at Columbia High School. It is in the southern part of Illinois. Last year he attended Illinois Institute of Technology where he received his master's degree. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

Since he is not married, Bales finds time to be co-sponsor with Mr. Carl Jackson of the Student Senate. Bales also serves as advisor to the Young Democrats. Other leisure hours are spent water skiing and rooing.

Having attended Belleville Junior College for two years following his military service, Bales is enthusiastic about the role which junior colleges are playing in public education. He believes junior colleges are a "revolutionary idea."

Originally from East St. Louis, the new CCC teachers finds Canton a small, quiet town with friendly people.

He is very impressed with the staff of Canton College.

Complimenting the students, CCC's "Johnny Carson" believes that students here are "very dedicated" for overcoming the present hardships involved in going to school any recently established in a new site.

HUSTLERS WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

The Hustlers, captained by Larry Marvin, won the grand championship of intramural touch football leagues.

Champions of the AFL league, the Hustlers blanked the MoFo's, 25-6, in the final game, played Nov. 21 in Athletic Park.

Season record for the Hustlers was six wins, no losses and one tie.

INTRAMURALS HAVE PROBLEMS

The college intramural basketball games are causing problems.

Due to gymnastics problems beyond the colleges control, the intramural games have been limited to 35 minute games on a half court.

The games are played in the Central Gym, east of Alice Ingersoll Gym.

The schedule for these games will be posted on the front door of Knahr Hall for Wednesday night's play.

Second semester the league will be limited to 11 teams and bowling will be offered as an alternate intramural sport.

BU LOSES $ on ATHLETICS

Bradley University anticipates losing $57,000 this year in its athletic program, some $35,000 more than last year.

A "Memo for Bradley Development" published recently by the school estimates operating expenses for athletics at $186,888, slightly more than 9 per cent of the university's total operating expenses.

Income from athletics is expected to total $238,000, or 2.7 per cent of the expected $8,490,000 total university income.

Basketball is Bradley's only "big money" sport. Good attendance at basketball games might create anticipated losses to a figure nearer last year's $7,217 deficit for athletics.

For over 25 years Bradley football has been a poor drawing card. Total attendance at two home football games this year was about 1,000 persons.
