The letterman, a group of friendly, responsive, intelligent young men, was granted performance April 3 that climaxed by a standing ovation.

After the performance, Tony, Tony, and Bobby all said they enjoyed the program as did Cynthia and were greatly pleased with the response of the audience. Tony said he would like to have seen more people there, but he still "loved" the audience.

The reporter’s favorite was Jimmy because of his warm, friendly attitude. Jimmy is the center of the group. He is the only member who is neither engaged nor married. At the time of the performance Jimmy was suffering from a slight cold which did not hamper his singing in the least.

All three young men are bars- tenors who move together perfectly. Each one sang several solos, applauded twice by the audience of 600 in CHCC auditorium.

A song which completely captivated the audience was "American Pie." The song was begun by Bobby, who turned the "mike" over to Tom, the band- some blond who is also un- engaged. Tony then went down into the audience and asked several people to sing along. One outstanding and fearless singer was John Johnson, a CCC graduate.

The songs sung on the program were: "Everyone Loves a Good Hannah," by Bobby; "Leave You, Up the Lazy River," by Tony; "Whale of a Splendid Thing," Kansas City, Im- possibly," by Jimmy; and "I Fell In Love." The group also sang two Beatles songs, "Michelle," and "Yesterday.

Tony, Bobby and Jimmy are all students at Fairfield University. Keppe Eppington, the largest na- tional auditions the fewest prominent stars present at the time, Tony, is engaged. Bobby has a beautiful, blondish wife, Betty, for three years. Bobby and Betty have a two-year old son, Andrew.

They all want to return to college someday if they lose their popularity, which is quite doubtful.

After leaving Canton, the letterman proceeded to Clarion, (Clarion, Illinois University). From Clarion, they traveled to Delaware, (Northern Illinois University), and then to Illinois. And many other places throughout the United States.

D. F. SLIPSMAILED OUT

At least five-eighths of the student body learned last week they were on shaky ground when, at the end of the mid-term, "D" and "F" slips were mailed from the college to 518 students.

The envelopes were heavier in some cases. Of the 518 CCC students reported as doing unsatisfactory work in their classes, 95 students received "D’s" and "E’s" in more than two courses. In several instances, five falling or "just barely" grades were received by one student.

PLEDGE DINNER

An initiation dinner for the pledges of Sigma Alpha Theta was held April 6 at the YWCA.

Following the meal, there was a gift exchange between the pledges and their big sisters.

The dinner was concluded with a candlelight initiation ceremony.

The Lettermen, Jim, Bob, and Tony stop and pose for a picture before their April 8 concert.

PARSONS LOSES ACCREDITATION

4700 students attending Par- son’s College in Fairfield, Ia., are in academic trouble due to action taken Thursday, April 6, by the North-Central Assoca- tion of Colleges and Secondary Schools at their annual meeting. Major deficiencies were spot- ted several years ago, and in 1963 Parsons was put on probation. These deficiencies have not been corrected yet, therefore, the as- sociation revoked the school’s scholastic accreditation. A spokesman for the association said the loss of accreditation may prohibit students from transferring credits to other schools. The association announced they would take action but did not explain the nature of the deficiencies.

A part-time job is a common way for students to earn money to pay for expenses such as housing, groceries, and transportation. However, it is important to balance work and school responsibilities.

New Records Worthwhile?

For the past few months, I have been studying the draft laws and proposals that have been put forth by various political figures. It is evident that there is a need for comprehensive reform of the draft system.

One aspect of the draft that needs attention is the number of exemptions. A large number of students are exempt from military service, and this can be problematic. The draft should be made more equitable and fair.

The draft system also needs to be more transparent. The process of determining who is exempt and who is not should be made more clear and easily accessible to the general public.

Military service should be voluntary, and the government should provide alternative service options for those who are not interested in military service. This would ensure that those who do not want to serve in the military have the option to do so.

In conclusion, the draft system needs comprehensive reform to ensure that it is fair, equitable, and transparent. The government should prioritize the well-being of its citizens and ensure that they are treated with respect and dignity.

CCC Student Heads Canton Alase Drive

By LINDA KENNEL

Gail Whitehead, Canton College freshman, is chairman of the Alase drive in Canton this year. Gail was asked why she had a particular interest in the Alase drive. She replied that her interest was in supporting the Alase drive. Her reply was that after seeing the movie of St. Jude's Research Hospital presented at her high school last year, she realized that there was too great an opportunity for those in need.

Gail continued to say that she made her decision to support the Alase drive because she felt that it was important to help others.

"I hope that this year's campaign is successful," said Gail. "The first goal is to raise awareness about the Alase drive and to encourage people to support it. The second goal is to raise funds to support the hospital."

The campaign will be held throughout the month of June. The primary goal is to raise funds to support the hospital. The second goal is to raise awareness about the Alase drive and to encourage people to support it.

'LOST HORIZON' REHEARSALS MEAN HARD WORK

By Gary Kohunsky

In less than three weeks, Canton College's production of East Horizon will be presented in Swarthmore Hall. Presently there are many people involved in converting an echo resounding room into a suitable theatre. The stage is to be constructed a cycle of a rough textured paper. This paper will be painted and thus give to the audience a sense of nature perspective. Draperies hung from the remaining walls will enclose the little theatre.

A last call, the lighting technicians are engaged in installing their overhead arangements with control from the back of the room. Everyone seems to be working against time. The cast have rigorous rehearsals everyday, while production committees work behind them. As time progresses, the efforts of many people can be seen in a large, commonplace assembly room transformed into a suitable stage and auditorium.

Tickets for the May 9 through 12 presentation are now being sold by students or in the college office. Ticket prices are one dollar for adults and fifty cents for children under 12.

College Pressures Can Lead To Emotional Problems

Carlisle, Pa. -- The academic and social pressures of college life can lead to emotional problems requiring professional help, according to Prof. Stephen B. Consett, Director of Counseling at Dickinson College.

Dr. Consett, an associate professor of psychology, states that in a year's time, six to eight percent of the student body comes to him with emotional problems. Sophomores predominate. The College Health Service sees more sophomores and more sophomores drop out of school.

"Psychologically, a lot goes on in the sophomore year," Dr. Consett said. "They're choosing their academic major which will have long-range effects on their career opportunities. They're working out a philosophy of life at this level. When the freshman comes to college, he sees things as black or white, but after a year in college, his thinking must shift -- everything is that definite anymore. His interpersonal pattern changes, and dating becomes more important as he begins to think in terms of a life-long companion."

But the most crucial factor, Dr. Consett believes, is "the psychological dependence-independence." In early adolescence, the student has learned his parents aren't omnipotent. In college he sees more clearly the imperfections of the church and of government. "In the student's eyes the parents have limited the church, religion, government, and he asks, 'Who is the source of knowledge and power?'"

"Maturity," Dr. Consett concluded, "is incorporating this knowledge and power within oneself." A freshman has both the college and his parents focusing on his dependency needs, but a sophomore is expected to stand on his own.

WHAT IS AN AMERICAN ANYWAY?

He yells for the government to balance the budget and then takes the last dime he has to make the down payment on his car.

He writes angry letters and then gives 'em the shirt off his back.

He knows the line-up of every baseball team in the American and National Leagues -- and doesn't know half the words of the "Star Spangled Banner."

An American is a man who will argue with his wife over her cooking and then go on a fishing trip and swallow half-fried potatoes and gritty, water coffee made in a rusty galvanized bucket and thinks it is good.

An American will work real hard on a farm, so he can move into town where he can make more money so he can move back to the farm.

When an American is in his office he talks about baseball or fishing -- when he is out at the grocery store he talks about business.

He is the only fellow in the world who will pay 50 cents to park his car while he eats a 25 cent sandwich.

We're the country that has more food than any other country in the world, and more diets to keep us from eating it.

In America we have more experts on marriage than any other country -- and more divorces.

But we're still pretty nice people. Calling a person "a real American" is the best compliment we can pay him. Most of the world is itching for what we have -- but they'll never have it until they start scratching for it the way we did.

CCC STUDENT IMPROVING

Mike Barnard, Canton College freshman, is a patient in Tahune Memorial Hospital, being treated for serious injuries incurred April 9 in a motorcycle-car crash.

The college student suffered a fractured pelvis when the cycle he was riding was reportedly struck by a car at an intersection.

Barnard expects to be hospitalized at least another week and will probably walk with crutches for several weeks more. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Barnard of rural Tremont.

Track Men Will 'Hold Their Own'

By Steve Blust

The Crusaders of the Middle Ages went forth seeking the Holy Grail - The Crusaders of Canton Community College Track and Field team this year will initiate their quest for personal and team glory. Coach Ed Geoghegan is optimistic stating, "We will hold our own in any event." There is corroborative evidence in the form of high school performances by team members to support the coach's statement.

The team possesses two obvious assets, balance and team spirit. Observing the team as I have, it is this team balance which catches the eye. Coach Geoghegan speaks for the evidence of team spirit by saying, "The attitude of the team has been excellent."

In the short dashes Canton has Pete Polakay, Brad Walker, Dave Jamison in the 100 and 220.

Bundled out the 220 field are John Greathouse and Joe Blackwell, Robert Moore and Alan Hosty.

In the longer dashes John Pratt, Larry Kent, Steve Blust, Dennis Smith, Joe Blackwell, Robert Moore, and Steve Ferguson provide competition for the fall. The 800 features John Pratt, McGinnis, Dennis Smith, Joe Blackwell, and Robert Moore.

There is a short roster in the one-mile and two-mile event. In the one mile Perry Wunder and Steve Blust complete the field and the duo of Alan Gillette and Steve Blust cover the two-mile event.

Hardliners include Larry Kent, Dennis Smith, Ronald Torey and Steve Ferguson.

Moving into the weight department, Pete Joseph and Larry Janssen work with the discus, Joseph combining with Pete Polakay in throwing the shot.

Ron Ingrossi and Dan Flie compete in high jump with Ingrossi joining John Carroll and Charles Kells in the pole vault.

Classing out the team roster in the broad jump are Greathouse, McGinnis, Ferguson, Alan Hosty, and Henry Browne.

Reading this reporter's mantle of objectivity and dancing the clock of Man, I say "The Crusaders" first track team will have an enviable record.

The track schedule for the remainder of the season is as follows:
April 22 - Muscovine Invitational
April 24 - Eureka Invitational
April 29 - Blackhawk Relays
May 6 - Region IV at Thornton

That's way up there even for a tall guy like Dan Flie, who competes in the high jump for our JC team.

Hurling the discuss for the Crusaders are Pete Joseph and Larry Janssen.

C.C.C. Will Not Have Golf Team

- A golf team for C.C.C. will not become reality this year. coach Jim Heer and said it was too late to set up matches with other schools. Several students have expressed an interest in forming a team.

Another stumbling block is the fact that both local golf courses are over-crowded. C.C.C. students have no place to practice since there are no courses open to the public.

Crusaders Lose Season Openers by GERRY TIGUE

Pitching was the problem in the first game as the Crusaders' baseball team dropped their opener to Robert Morris Junior College, 7-2, and then lost a doubleheader to Lincoln, 13-6 and 7-4.

A total of five Canton hurst were used in the season opener and starter Dave Gustafson was tagged with the loss. In the third innings that he pitched "Gas" gave up seven runs on five hits, struck out four and walked one. Freshman second baseman Bill Wickevich's triplicate sparked the Crusader hitting attack.

Gustafson accounted for both Canton runs when he tripled in the fifth inning to drive in Dave Jones and then scored the second run on Smith's single.

In the doubleheader with Lincoln, the Crusaders used six runs in the second inning and a run in the sixth to up the Crusaders to the first game and rallied for three runs in the fourth and fifth innings to take the second contest.

Gustafson absorbed his second loss in the opener. In four innings he was called for eight hits and seven runs. Steve Keme, in relief to Gustafson, blanked Lincoln in the home half on the fifth. Canton held on for the win in the top of the sixth but the Lynx came back with five in the final half to spoil any Canton hopes for a victory.

Danny Johnson made his starting debut in the second game and held Lincoln to run through the first three innings. The Lynx scored two in the fourth, however, as they pushed across three runs in the fifth and added three more in the fifth to overtake a 6-1 Crusader lead and steal the second contest.

Dick Burkett was the only Canton player to shine in these two games. Burkett collected four singles and drove in a run in eight trips to the plate.

Today the Crusaders will be going against the Bradley Braves in a single game at the Athletic Park starting at 3 p.m.

MANY QUESTIONS ANSWERED AT ADVISING DAY

Parking spaces were plentiful along the streets around First and Second Avenues on April 11, Advising Day. When students filled in only three semesters of enrollment procedures here and at four-year institutions. Frequently asked by students was: Will the Tri-County School district continue to pay our tuition here at CCC next year?" They told that the new Illinois Central Junior College will open in the fall only for freshmen. In other words, CCC students who will be sophomores next year may complete their junior college work here and expect to have their tuition paid by their home districts.

Students who are residents of the Illinois Central districts are required to contact the ICC College office (room 413) in the Commercial National Bank Building, Peoria, before July 1. A second year student is classified as one who is taking a major portion of his work in sophomore courses.

In addition, students who are enrolled in programs not offered by ICC or other junior colleges next year, whether freshmen or sophomores, may enroll in ICC with their tuition payable by their home districts.

CHEL CERBUS
A crescent will be taken at Spring Lake near Moody this year, the Illinois Department of Conservation announced.
Fisheries Division personnel will interview sportmen fishing the lake two days a week, from April 15 to Sept. 2, to determine how long they fished, the distance they traveled, their success, etc. Information gained from sportmen is useful to managers of the lakes.
In 1964 and 1965 anglers caught bluegill, crappie, bullheads, eelpout, drum, spotted sunfish, channel catfish, largemouth bass, warmouth and grass pickerel at Spring Lake. Bluegill, crappie and bullheads comprised about 80 per cent of the total catch. The catch rate was about a fish for every two hours of angling.
