BOX Y

Are you currently in F-1 status? _____ Yes _____ No

If your answer is “no” Form I-20 will be issued only after you have made an appointment with us for assistance or reinstatement to student status. If you are not eligible for a change of status or reinstatement, the form will be issued for only travel to your home country and return with an F-1 visa. Whether or to you are issued the Form I-20 and whether or not you travel, you may enroll, attend classes, and work toward a degree, regardless of your legal status.

If you answered “yes” and wish to travel outside the U.S. before beginning school, you must rush your financial documents to us so your I-20 can be issued for travel. Discuss your travel plans with us. You will not be issued documents for travel during registration or orientation.

BOX N

Write your exact address. We will not mail documents to a U.S. address when students are outside the U.S. If you do not supply your foreign address, the form will not be issued.
