SHONDELLS TO PLAY AT BALL

SLATE FORMAL DANCE FOR MAY 25 AT PEORIA

By Pat Lopeman

A group with nine hit recordings to its name headlines the show for the CCC May Ball. According to Jim Heeren, director of student activities, Tommy James and the Shondells will appear at the Pere Marquette Grand Ball Room in Peoria, May 25.

Also appearing at the ball will be Billy Hill and his orchestra. Hill will play for 7 to 9 p.m.

Tommy James and the Shondells will begin at 9 p.m. and play for two 40-minute sessions. The group will cost the college $3,000.

Hits by Tommy James and the Shondells include: "Hanky Panky," "Say I Am," "It's Only Love," "I Think We're Alone Now," "Mirage," "I Like The Way, " "Out of the Blue," "Get Out Now," and their current hit, "Mony Mony".

"Hanky Panky" was recorded three years before it became a hit recording. The group waited for the record to "click" but to no avail. One day a disk jockey was looking for an old record in his files. He came across "Hanky Panky" and decided to play it on the air. Requests came into the station from everywhere and within two weeks the record was on the charts.

The group includes Tommy James, Eddie Gray, Pete Lucia, Ronnie Rosman, and Mike Vale.

Heeren said that students may decide to wear formal attire for the orchestra's appearance at 7 p.m. and then change into something more suitable for the dance at 9.

This year the May Ball differs from others in the past years as the admission has dropped from $7 and $8 per couple to $2 per couple, and that the annual affair was always held after school had dismissed.

Because of the size of the Pere Marquette Grand Ball Room, which can only handle 300 couples ID's will be checked to insure only the presence of CCC students and their guests.

King, Queen Of May Ball To Be Named

Crowning and presentation of gifts to the 1968 King and Queen of the Canton College May Ball will highlight the semester's principal social event May 25 at the Pere Marquette in Peoria.

Winners will be announced by a Student Senate officer midway through the evening's festivities. A gift of jewelry and flowers will be presented to the Queen after she is crowned, and the King, too, will receive a gift.

The following candidates and alternates, nominated by various college social and service organizations, were reported May 8 to Jim Heeren, Student Senate adviser:

For King — Dennis Gille (Pete Heiden, alternate), Jeff Jochums (Mike Chatwell, alternate), John Dare (Mike Murphy, alternate), Terry Winters (Mike Chatwell, alternate).

For Queen — Patti Cranwill, Missy Hall (Jeanne Kumer, alternate), Vicky Hammond (Lisa Beck, alternate), Georgia Brickler (Jeanne Maxfield, alternate).

All CCC students are eligible to vote for their favorite candidates in an election preceding the May Ball.

English Dept. Head Resigns

Canton Community College's English department director has resigned. Mrs. Floride Kidder said that she is leaving for personal reasons. Mrs. Kidder received both her B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Illinois. She has been teaching for two and one-half years.

Mrs. Kidder stated she would like to write some short stories and articles. She published an 80 page manual for Alpha Phi sorority last year entitled "The Ivy League". The manual dealt with pledge training. Mrs. Kidder was an international officer of the organization.

Mrs. Kidder and her husband reside at 409 North Galena Road, Peoria Heights. Her husband was recently promoted to sales manager at Byerly Music Company in Peoria. She is originally from Lacon.

Robert McGinnis was granted a sick leave from Canton College, following action at a board meeting, April 22. McGinnis was a chemistry instructor. He was replaced by Mrs. Arthur Gurley, of Fairview, for the remainder of the year.

NAME YR'S TOP CLUB

by Bernie Cowan

As the "Most Outstanding Organization" of the year, the Young Republicans will receive their trophy at the May Ball on May 25.

The Young Republicans won the title by unanimous vote of a Senate committee. Other organizations competing were: Sigma Iota Nu, Sigma Alpha Theta, Zeta Chi, Phi Kappa Sigma, Lancer, and Shield.

Active participation by these organizations shows initiative and concern for functions at Canton College, Jack Flanagan, outgoing vice-president of the senate said.

YR'S HOLD DRIVE

The Canton College Young Republicans collected $126.87 on April 25 for the annual American Cancer Society drive in Canton.

According to Y.R. veterans, this year's drive was more successful than last year.

Y.R.'s participating in this year's drive was Harrison Eller, advisor, Ron Tomevi, Terry Briggs, Rod Nickerson, Forreste Stelle, Anna Williamson, Linda McVicker, and Paula Sprowls.

Don Vanderveen welds a piece to his metal sculpture "Pristine", to be displayed in the lobby of Dahm Hall.

FORM NEW FARM FRAT.

A new fraternity, the second on campus for agriculture--oriented students, was founded in April for men enrolled in the Ag Management curriculum.

Alpha Gamma Tau is a service-social organization open to students interested in agriculture. The group has 18 charter members. They plan to have their first formal rush to acquire pledges next fall.

Gary Wright of Warsaw is president of AGT. Other officers are: Don Springer, Hopedale, vice president; John Abbott, Canton, secretary; Tim Raedemaker, Emden, treasurer. Hal Kapraun, Gremount, and Mike Mathias, Kenney, are reporters, and George Kopp, Illiopolis, sergeant-at-arms. Carl McCausland of the Ag Tech faculty will serve as adviser.

Business meetings are being held twice a month in Kuchan 113.

The two fraternities were scheduled to play a softball game May 7. (See photo, page 4)

NEW STUDENT APPLICATIONS TOTAL 264

Returning students and the 264 new students, that have applied to date for the 1968 Fall Semester at CCC, will have a wide selection of classes to choose from very similar to this year's.

Although many of the classes are not on the tentative schedule, they will be offered. No foreign languages appear on the schedule, but the assistant to the president, Victor Zavarella, has reported that French and Spanish will be offered.

None of the tech. classes appear on the schedule, but they too will be offered. In fact, the Farm Machine Tech. program has openings for fifty students, and to date eighty applications have been received.

D. F. Slips Hit New High

More than one-half of the students enrolled in C.C.C. received D or F slips at midterm. In a report released by the college office May 1, it was reported that out of about 850 students enrolled, 461 received D or F slips, more than ever before issued.

Of these students 203 received below average grades in more than one subject. D or F slips in four subjects were received by 19 students, and three students received D or F slips in five subjects.

Students whose grade point average is below "C" are automatically placed on academic probation.

Grant Leave To Dean Mortvedt

Donald Mortvedt, Dean of Students at Canton College, is taking a leave of absence next year. He will attend the Institute for Advanced Study for Student Personnel Workers in Higher Education at the University of Illinois.

The institute program is designed to prepare student personnel workers to assume positions with major decision-making authority in junior coleges, colleges, and universities.

He will be paid while attending these studies, also he will receive thirty-two semester hours of graduate credit for this study.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

BERRY SPEAKS

Dear Sir,

First, I wish to thank all the people who worked for and with me during the past year in the Student Senate and also to commend all Senate members for a job well done in a year full of great achievements.

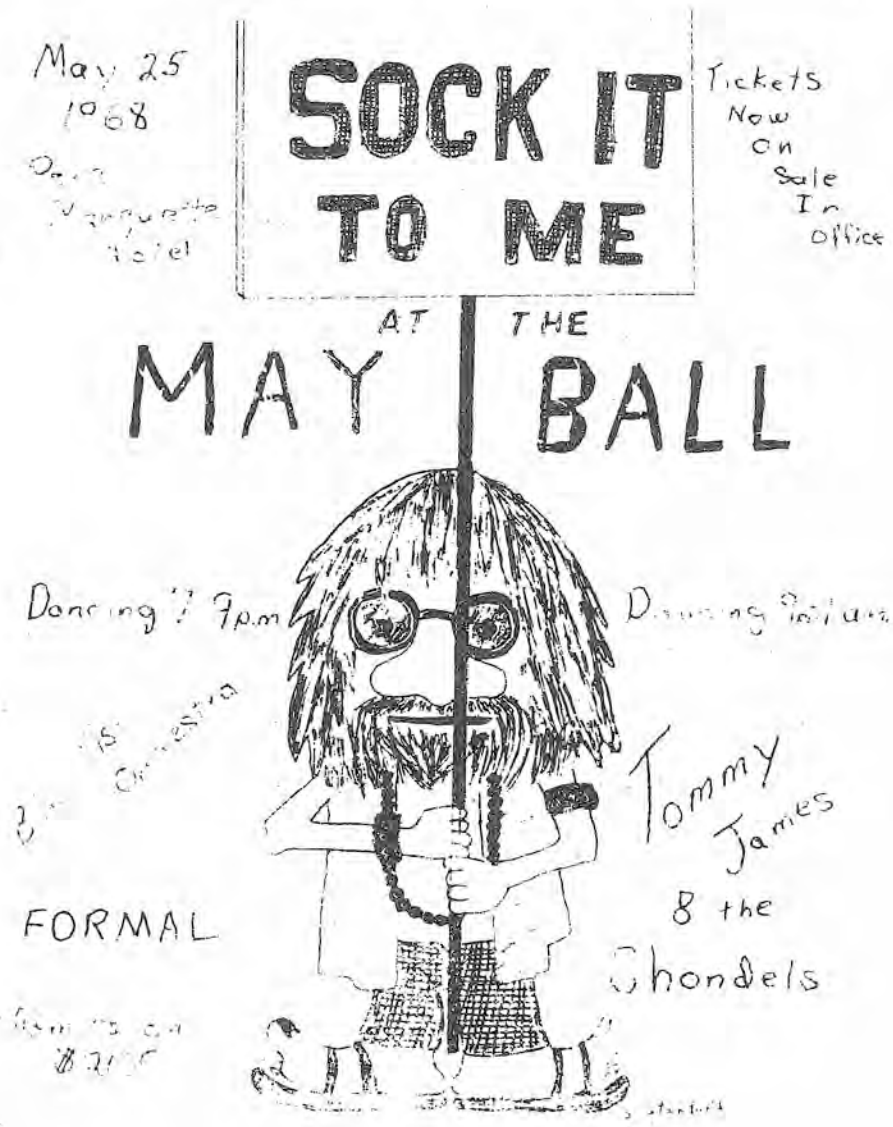

Second, I wish to thank Ron Kahn, Jack Flanagan, Miss Judy Rechlin, Miss Nancy Lefler, Steve Hoak, Dave Slunder, and my wife, Diane, for their tremendous help in my campaign for the presidency of the Student Senate, which without their help no battle would have occured.

Third, I wish to praise John Dare for having the courage to challenge me for the presidency of the Student Senate. Speaking frankly, I was the man to beat for the presidency; no one else in the school, available for candidacy, could possibly have as much experience in Senate operations and activities as I. And so thinking, I thought no one would do more than place their name on the ballot against mine. But John Dare did; and what a battle he waged! He conferred with the F.M.T. men -- I didn't consider it. He spoke of ideas - I spoke of experience. He spoke of the future - I spoke of the past. He had the nerve, and good sense, to walk up to a man and say, "Hello, I'm John Dare and I'm running for Student Senate President," and to stop to talk about that man's problems - I was too meek. He had the nerve to challenge me; and you know, I was the one who didn't dare meet his challenge! Making no positive stands for the future, I just rode along on my experience platform until the wheels fell off-and now John Dare is the new president of the Student Senate.

And so being, I say, "ATTENTION, fellow students; you have John Dare one of the best presidents in Canton College's history. Don't waste Mr. Dare's brilliant ideas and qualifications, but exploit them (and back them). I also hope that Mr. Dare realizes that he has the most experienced staff to work for him in Senate history with three returning members. Next year's Senate has the potential of being best in Canton College's history - even better than this year's." Again, I salute you, John Dare.

Fourth, I would like to say that due to Mr. Dare's persuasive manner and sincerity, I do plan to remain on the Senate as a representative-at-large and "let my experience work for you." I guess one could call me Canton College's paper tiger, Richard Nixon; but I say "beware my next opponent for I have learned much from Mr. Dare's courage, campaign, and victory!"

Sincerely yours,
Larry L. Berry Rep.-at-Large

NEW SUMMER SYSTEM PROPOSED

Should Canton College adopt short summer school senssions with concentrated study? This is the question I ask the Canton College administration?

The present summer session runs for eight weeks, which takes in nearly the entire summer. This schedule make it difficult for students to work full time jobs and enjoy a vacation with their families.

Bradley has two five-week sessions with longer hours and a lower maximum load. Bradley students think this type of study is superior. They can get the same amount of education in a much shorter time span. The student comprehension of the subject is thus heightened. Not only does the student have half the summer to use as he wishes the faculty has the option to teach only one of the five-week sessions with a vacation for themselves.

TO VOTE SATURDAY FOR COLLEGE BOND

Polls will be open from noon to 7 p.m., Saturday, throughout the College (Class I) Fulton-Mason -Knox district to vote for seven members of the newly-established District 534.

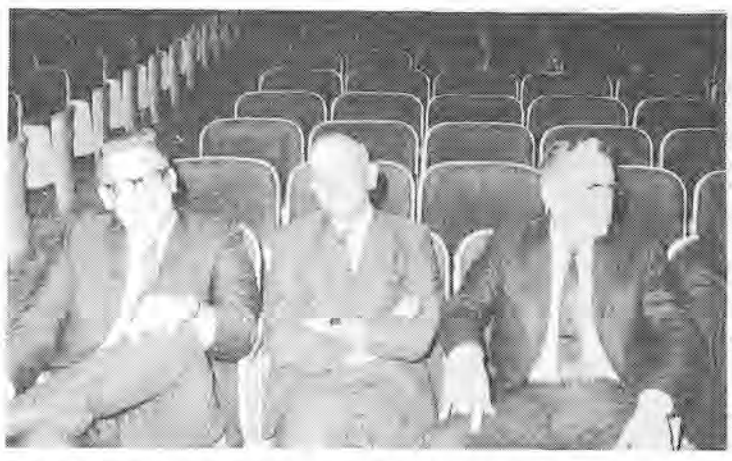

At least two members are to be elected as representative from unincorporated territory within the district. The following men are candidates:

Harold Ellis, Canton; Mike Chianakas, Canton; Howard Leinbaugh, Lewistown; Charles Schleich, Fairview (unincorporated); Stanley Butt, Lewistown (unincorporated); Jim Richmond, Table Grove (unincorporated); Dr. W. I. Taylor, Canton (unincorporated); Charles Bond, Canton, Dr. James Welch, Cuba; Delano Ohaver, Farmington; Clyde Eaton, Havana; Rev. Eugene Reffett, Jr., Ipava; and Hendry (Hank) Bennett, Fairview.

Twelve of the 13 candidates gave three-minute presentations of why they are running for positions on the board at an Open Forum May 8 in Canton Senior High School auditorium. The event was sponsored by Spoon River Teachers Association. Although the forum was open to the public, only about 55 persons attended.

THIS IS MY DREAM

by Gary McCray

"I have a dream today ... I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, every hill and mountain shall be made low. The rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight. And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day ..."

This was Martin Luther King, Jr.'s dream. He lived by this dream and he most certainly died for his dream. Martin Luther King, Jr. was a man of non-violence, but he was still struck by violence. I ask you, "Is this freedom' Is this expected from a democratic nation like the U.S.?" I say "No!" But yet it happens.

What is the problem? Is it so strong that men cannot solve it? How long can this problem continue? These are all questions, which I'm sure many people have, and can answer; but why aren't they put into effect?

Martin Luther King would have liked to have known that the words "Free at last. Free at last. Thank God Almighty, we are free at last," from his favorite humn had become a reality. Martin Luther King, Jr., a great man, is now finally free at last. Martin Luther King, Jr. quoted, "It really doesn't matter with me now because I've been to the mountain top." But have we all been there.

DANCE IS SUCCESS

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and hearty congratulations to the Student Senate for the fine dance they sponsored April 24.

Other students I talked to expressed favorable comments toward the high quality of entertainment offered.

I hope that other events of this caliber will be forthcoming from our Student Senate.

CONGRATULATIONS SENATE

I wish to congratulate President Dan Kelly and his Senate group for responding by revising the Constitution and stepping up activity for the students. Even though I was unable to go to the dance that featured The Oliver Sain Review, I heard many compliments about this group and getting Tommy James and the Shondells for the May Ball shows how hard that the Senate members have worked. Congratulations to the Student Senate of 1968 for a job well done.

Budweiser Sponsors Music Festival

Budweiser, the king of beers, will sponsor the Intercollegiate Music Festival's annual competitions for college musicians and vocalists.

Regional competitions in Pennsylvania, Alabama, Illinois, Arkansas, Utah and California narrow the field for the national finals of the Festival, which will be held in the Kiel Opera House in St. Louis on June 20-22 this year . Over 7,500 students at 750 colleges and universities entered the 1968 competition.

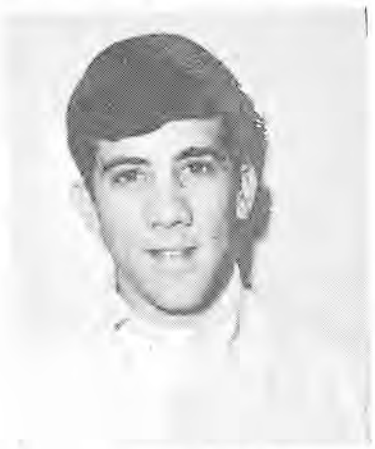

Budweiser joins Trans World Airlines to sponsor the battle for college music's national championships.

The Festival's National Advisory Board includes Henry Mancini, Ella Fitzgerald, Brenda Lee, Dave Brubeck, Al Hirt and Pete Fountain.

Budweiser will play host to 180 of the nation's top music-makers when the national finalists move into St. Louis in June.

The Intercollegiate Music Festival will add popular and folk music competition to the present jazz categories in 1969.

ELECT '68-'69 SENATE OFFICERS

Ron Kahn

RON KAHN of Peoria was recently elected to the office of Vice-President of Student Senate. Ron went to high school at Peoria High, and is a business major at Canton College.

Kahn, while in high school, served on many committees and offices. In September of 1967 he was elected representative of the college Senate. During his time as representative he helped on such committees as Casino Night, The Dating Game, and contributed to revising the Constitution.

Kahn feels that the new members of the Senate are "good hard-working people" and they will work hard to serve their school and students. The new Constitution which was just revised will be a big help in guiding the work of the Senate.

Ron has many good ideas and plans for the Senate but wants to hold them for surprises.

His goal for next year is to serve his office to the best of his ability. Ron was just recently initiated into Sigma Iota Nu fraternity.

Larry Sarff

LARRY SARFF, at the recent Student Senate election, became the first Theta Kappa Epsilon member to hold a position on the Senate. Sarff, who comes from Streator, will be treasurer for the 1968-1969 school year.

Sarff is a 1967 graduate of Streator Township High. During his high school years he participated in football, served as treasurer for the French Club his junior year, and as a senior was a member of the Streator Pep Club.

Although unsure of his future, the business administration major plans to transfer to a four-year school after he graduates from C.C.C.

Patty Stees

PATTY STEES, five-feet four-inch blonde freshman and Canton College office's "girl Friday," defeated Steve Standard and Joe Luthy for the office of secretary of the Student Senate.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stees, 135 Argonne Drive, Patty gives the credit for her candidacy to Mrs. Janet Flynn, office secretary. Mrs. Flynn and Patty both agreed that the Senate needed girls, or at least one girl, on its membership roll. She was the only girl who petitioned for a place on the ticket.

A graduate of Canton Senior High School, Patty is enrolled in secretarial science curriculum at Canton College.

The delivery date for the 1968 CCC Shield will be August 15.

No books will be mailed this year, but copies may be picked up in the college office at anytime after the delivery date.

PRESIDENT HAS NEW IDEAS

John Dare, recently elected Student Senate President revealed that he plans to insert new ideas during his term of office, into Senate procedures.

Teacher evaluation sheets, which form a better teacher-student relationship and Crusaders Day and Track Meets to be held on the same day are two of his hopes for next year.

Dare, who is majoring in education, comes from a politically minded family. One brother is the president of the Junior Class at WIU and a second brother is a past president of the Student Senate at Illinois State University.

Dare, whose hobbies include water skiing and drag racing, added that he likes to read and discuss various problems with other people.

Already At Work

Already at work helping prepare for the annual May Ball are officers and senators-at-large elected April 25. Their duties begin officially May 25 when retiring President Dan Kelly surrenders the gavel to his successor, John Dare.

Of the 254 votes cast by students, Dare received 107 in defeating Larry Berry, who received 94 votes, and Wayne De mott, who got 53.

In a close battle for the vice-presidency, Ron Kahn edged Scott Doubet. Tally for this office was Kahn, 93; Doubet, 90; and Bruce LaViolette, 71.

Only college woman on this year's ticket was Patty Stees who received 121 votes for secretary to defeat Steve Standard, 72 votes, and Joe Luthy, 61.

Champion vote getter on the ticket was Larry Sarff, elected treasurer over Frank Schwiderski by a vote of 138 to 116.

Runners-up who will serve as senators-at-large next year are: Frank Schwiderski of Toluca; Scott Doubet, Williamsfield; Larry Berry, Pekin; and Steve Standard, Canton. Bruce LaViolette of Galesburg is an alternate.

SOCIOLOGY CLASS VISITS HOSPITAL

Approximately 13 C.C.C. students visited the Galesburg State Research Hospital, the afternoon of May 8. The students are in the social problems class, taught by Mrs. Mildred Patterson.

The visit took about one and one-half hours, with a guided tour of the labs and a lecture. It was the first time Mrs. Patterson has taken a class there.

PHIL GIBBONEY IN "RAINMAKER"

Phil Gibboney, CCC sophomore, will appear in the Fulton County Playhouse production of the "Rainmaker" which will open June 6.

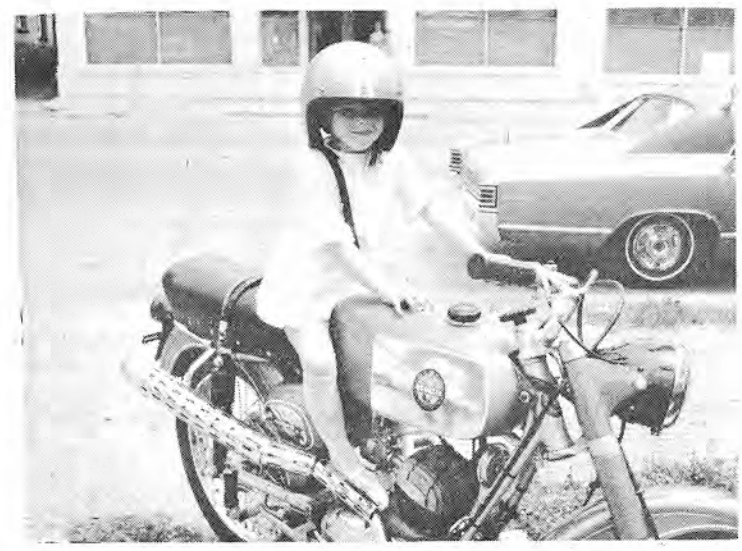

Gibboney, a Lewistown native and a member of playhouse productions for the past three years, is an English major at the college and will also appear in the college play, "Spoon River Anthology," which will be presented later this month.

Don Marine, an Illinois Central College and Bradley speech instructor, will direct the Playhouse's season opener. Marine recently directed the ICC production, "Dark of the Moon."

The play is a dramatic comedy about the plight of an unmarried woman whose father and brothers plan to marry her off to the local sheriff. However, Lizzie, the youthful spinster, seems to be destined to a life of maiden chastity until "The Rainmaker," or Starbuck, bursts into her dull life and makes her realize that she is a woman after all.

Other members of the cast include Jim Elson, Bob Sawyer, Al Vaughn, Dr. V.L. Trotter, Jim Grier, and Mrs. Mary Jo Walters.

"The Rainmaker" was written by N. Richard Nash.

S LIFE

"One more puff . . . it ain't over yet" seems to be the attitude of CCC students during the "False Alarm."

"AFTER"

Hold Unscheduled Fire Drill Here

Somebody around here must like fire alarms, because at 10:35 a.m., April 24, an unknown source set off the fire alarm system. As it started out it was just a routine fire drill. After all the students had filed out of the building, the teachers called them back to class, and it became apparent that the fire drill wasn't over -- the fire alarm was still ringing.

When the students returned to class, teachers went to the office to see why the alarm was still ringing. Mrs. Virginia Vassen was found to be frantically pushing on one of the alarm buttons and Mrs. Kathryn Doubet was heard to yell "Take an ax to it."

Some of the classes were dismissed because of the noise of the alarm, while some of the students went down to where the action was, the alarm switch-box system.

Down in the control booth, so to speak, Don Brauer was found pushing a button, which was apparently one way to keep the alarm off. But when his finger was removed the sound began again.

Word was sent out for Howard Williams to come from the police station to see if the long arm of the law could stop the ringing. Williams went to Swartzbaugh to see if he could find where the switch was set off.

By this time Mike Baker was left with his finger on the button and the last anyone saw of Howard Williams was as he rode in his Cushman down the street.

Finally at 11 a.m., 25 minutes after the alarm first sounded, Powers, superintendant of maintenance came and pulled the switch which shut the alarm off.

School was back to normal except for the talk about: what if there should be a real fire what would be used for an alarm?

YR'S Elect Officers

The Young Republicans of Canton College recently held an election of new officers. Paula Sprowls was elected as president; Terry Briggs - vice-president; Linda McVickers - secretary; and Rod Nickerson - treasurer.

Ron Tomeri will surrender the gavel at the next Young Republicans' meeting to the new president, Paula Sprowls.

Paula will be the first female president for this organization.

RECORDS SET IN TRACK

by Larry Sarff

Six new records have been set by CCC's cinder squad.

The new record holders and their events are: John Carroll, pole vault, 13 feet; John Janssen, discus, 130 feet; Joe Blackwell, javelin, 128 feet, 9 in.; Harry Beasley, shot put, 41 ft., 3 in.; Alan Rose, high hurdles, 16.3; and Rose also holds the record in 440 yd. high hurdles with a time of 64.8 seconds.

Canton's track men had competed in five meets by May 6 and have yet to garner their first victory despite some great individual efforts. The team has competed with Illinois Wesleyan University and Eureka at Wesleyan, Blackhawk J.C. at Moline, Western Illinois University at Macomb, and two relay meets at MacMurray and Blackhawk.

Results of three team meets in which Crusaders placed are printed below.

Crusaders Lose Out In Tourney

The hard hitting Crusader's hopes of advancing toward the state finals were destoyed May 4.

Arch-rival Lynx of Lincoln Junior College downed the college team 5-4. The local team threatened in almost every inning but were able to push across only four runs. Canton left 10 men on base in the first three innings.

Ron Gardner was thrown out trying to score from third on a wild pitch in the top of the ninth.

AN EVENING WITH THE RIGHTEOUS BROS.

Righteous Brother Bobby Hatfield signs autographs while partner Jim Walker looks on.

You go back stage at a quarter to nine. The show is still going on, but it's only an unknown comedian — the real stars haven't appeared yet, the Righteous Brothers are still in their dressing room waiting until the excitement is just at its peak before they appear.

Backstage, is of course under the bleachers at the Bradley Field House and the show is one featuring the Righteous Bros. the evening of Apr. 26. The crowd numbers about three thousand and out of that multitude are other reporters from other papers. But you made it, you're in the dressing room and except for a Bradley radio station reporter and an unidentified girl you are alone with Jimmy Walker and Bobby Hatfield, the Righteous Brothers.

They look old and very tired, nervous, and bored. Even the heavy stage makeup doesn't hide the expressions. They smile when they are told to and are polite to the mundane questions, but they obviously are thinking "more of the same — always the mediocre questions." But you try to be different and ask for new information. And, finally you crack the bored exterior and get a smile — they laugh and for the first time you see the real people, the ones who perform because they love it.

They tell you they like to perform on college campuses because of the atmosphere — the students.

What was the best song they ever recorded? "Lovin' Feelin" replies Bob Hatfield. Was the new addition to the group one of the original Walker Brothers. "You mean you've heard of them?" was all Jimmy Walker replied. What do they do when they aren't working? They both wonder aloud when that is and then reply they're sports addicts since they've given up cars, their once favorite pass-time. What do they drive now? Jimmy Walker drives an MG. Bob Hatfield drives a sports car too — only its make is lost to crowd noises. The comedian just finished his act.

What have they been doing since the original act split up and Hatfield and Walker started working together? Since that's only been three months ago they've worked mostly college campuses. But soon the Righteous Brothers will go to the Las Vegas Sand's and then on to the Coconut Grove.

They pose for a picture. Jim Walker lights a cigarette — he's smoking Marlboro. Someone asks for an autograph and a chain reaction is started.

They pose for more pictures. The radio reporter asks if their costumes have any significance— they're wearing Mod tunic tops one black, one green, white bell-bottom pants and matching white leather boots. Each has a jeweled pendant around his neck. The costume signifies nothing — just a reflection of the times.

There are only a few minutes before they go on. The dressing room is cleared. They ask the unidentified girl where a good place to get a few drinks after the show is over. She directs them to the College Inn.

Soon the lights dim, the overture of "Soul and Inspiration" begins and the Righteous Brothers bound onto the empty stage. They are different now. Now they are performing — giving their all to their audience. The excitement builds and then suddenly it is all over. You leave as a hoard of people rush backstage for autographs. You think of all that you didn't have time to ask in the three-minute interview— and you wonder if they made it to the College Inn.

SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY Slated For Late Spring

Dates originally set for the production of the college's semi-musical have had to be changed due to unforseen complications, according to Miss Daisy Coty, producer-director.

About 30 college students and 30 area residents will present Edgar Lee Master's "Spoon River Anthology" sometime late this month. The area residents were asked to participate in the production by the director because of the need for extras in the musical numbers and also because CCC is a community college, therefore it was felt that a community type effort on the play would be suitable for "Spoon River Anthology."

All speaking parts in the play are being handled by college students and music for the production is being directed by Lou Jendras, CCC student.

Lacking adequate facilities for presenting the play, the original plan was to stage it in the Canton Senior High School Auditorium. However, a conflict in scheduling events would have made it impossible for rehearsals to be held there during the week of the production. Alternate stages have been considered and an announcement will be made when suitable facilities have been found.

The college's theatre arts class, taught by Miss Coty, forms the nucleus for the cast and production staff.
